

UG Curriculum and Syllabus feedback of Regulations 2015 implemented in Regulation 2019

The following details have been included in regulations 2019 of B.E Printing and Packaging Technology

- The name of the course has been changed from 'Printing Technology' to 'Printing and Packaging Technology' based on the feedback received from the Industry as well as the subject matter experts.
- Vision and mission of the Department has been included
- Categorized program outcomes included
- Program specific outcomes have been mapped
- The percentage of Packaging subjects have been increased

Semester II

- Course on Problem solving and python programming included in the place of Computing Techniques and C programming.
- Human relation at work has been included

Semester III

- Course on Fundamentals of Printing and Packaging has been included

Semester IV

- Course on Flexography and Converting Process has been included in the place of Flexographic Printing

Semester V

- Course on Cost Estimation for Printing has been upgraded to Costing and Estimating for Printing and Packaging
- Printing and Packaging Quality Control laboratory has been included

HEAD OF THE DEPARTMENT

PG Curriculum and Syllabus feedback of Regulations 2015 implemented in Regulation 2019

The following details have been included in regulations 2019 of M.E Printing and Packaging Technology

- Vision and mission of the Department included
- Categorized program outcomes included
- Program specific outcomes have been mapped

Semester I

- A course on Statistical Methods for Engineers has been removed
- Two new courses 'Research Methodology and IPR' and 'Personality Development through Life Enlightenment Skills' has been included
- A course on 'Printing Inks and Coatings' has been made as a core subject from being an elective in the previous syllabus
- The laboratory course 'Package Testing Laboratory' which was offered in the second semester in the Regulations 2015 has been moved to the first semester in Regulations 2019.

Semester II

- The course 'Plastics in Packaging' which was offered in first semester in the previous regulations has been moved to the second semester in the new regulations
- An audit course has been introduced
- A new laboratory course 'Package Material Processing Laboratory' has been introduced.
- 'Mini Project with seminar' a new course has been introduced

Semester III

- Technical Seminar has been removed in the new syllabus

HEAD OF THE DEPARTMENT